A brand New Suzuki program for our Beginning Strings Students!

The ArtsPrep Orchestra Program (T.O.P.) is proud to announce the start of our NEW T.O.P. Suzuki Program!

Beginning in the Fall 2012, this New Suzuki program will be taught by certified Suzuki instructors of the very highest caliber. Students Ages: 3*- 8 who are brand new to string instruments can quickly learn to play through the Suzuki method. T.O.P Suzuki will be held at all three main Tri-C Campuses, and there are a limited number of spaces at each one. Enrollment for the Fall is being accepted now, and students are admitted on a first come-first serve basis. T.O.P Suzuki includes both a weekly private lesson and ensemble sessions. At this price spaces will go fast, so don't delay.

Call 216-987-6145 to reserve a space for your child today! Parental involvement is essential to a student's success in this program. Parents are required to attend sessions for the first three weeks on how to support the training at home. *all students must be completely "potty-trained" in order to start this program. No exceptions.

academy

The ArtsPrep Dance Academy provides students with opportunities to gain necessary skills for success – in school, college, further dance training, and in whatever their future career choice may be. Taught by the area's top professional dancer instructors, the Dance Academy's course offerings emphasize discipline, commitment, focus and fun! All full-session classes will showcase their work during a performance on May 12, 2012.

early childhood: dance exploration classes

Dance Fundamentals (Ages: 4 - 6)

(Metro Campus– CCA 017)

January 21 - May 12, 2012

Price: $125

Saturdays , 10:30am – 11:20am

(No class on March 17 & April 17, 2012)

Give dance a try with this introductory class. Students will experience the joy of dance while exploring fundamental movement concepts of space, shape, and time. Through creative exercises and active learning, students will be introduced to the fundamentals of movement that will prepare them for further training in various dance techniques.

mission

Students in the ArtsPrep program will be challenged to do their best by our faculty of world-class teaching artists. All faculty members have performance degrees in the disciplines they teach or have long professional careers of distinction. All instruction is college-level quality, tailored specifically to the age and experience of our students. Our commitment is to develop students into “competent craftsmen” who have the opportunity to fully realize their talent at any level they choose.

vision

The ArtsPrep Program of the Tri-C Division of Creative Arts provides a clear pathway to success through the arts for students of all ages. ArtsPrep offers affordable and accessible training in the arts with the goal that participants who remain in the program, regardless of artistic talent, will be fully prepared to enter the college of their choosing. By focusing on rigorous, professional training, ArtsPrep develops confidence, mastery of craft, creativity, self-discipline and familiarity with a college environment.

The ArtsPrep Music Academy nurtures appreciation and passion for one of the oldest and most popular forms of art. From classical piano, to jazz or rock and roll, our classes and individual instrument lessons examine all aspects of music: music reading, development of technical skills, sense of rhythm, and all of the elements that contribute to a successful performance. With additional activities such as concerts, lectures, and master-classes, students will learn the great beauty of the art of music and participate in an end-of-the year recital. We invite you to discover the emotional power and intellectual stimulation of making music through the many opportunities provided by the ArtsPrep Music Academy.

private lessons

Private Lessons (Ages: 4 - Adult)

(West, East & Metro Campuses)
January 17 - May 6, 2012

Price: 30 min. lessons - $295.00

45 min. lessons - $440.00

60 min. lessons - $580.00

Lessons are arranged at mutually agreeable days/times between instructors and students. Call 216-987-6145 to register for lessons. (No lessons the week of March 12-18 & April 7-8, 2012)

Students in private lessons work toward the mastery of instrumental or vocal techniques and the aesthetic and creative aspects of music. Instruction is available for most instruments including piano, voice, guitar, drums, strings, brass, woodwinds and ethnic instruments.

From beginners to competition-ready virtuosos, our dynamic faculty, flexible schedule and exciting learning environment gives our students the opportunity to examine in depth all aspects of vocal and instrumental playing and the basics of music theory.

Our curriculum includes lesson plans for students who are studying for pure enjoyment, as well as a more traditional "conservatory-like" program that prepares students with professional aspirations for college auditions or competitions. Prices for the most advanced level are higher than those listed above. Please call 216-987-6145 to inquire about these very specialized lessons.

Private Lessons in Recording Arts & Technology

This exciting program provides an opportunity to learn the inner workings of the recording industry on new, state-of-the-art equipment in the Tri-C Center for the Creative Arts. (Only offered as 60-minute lessons at the Private Lesson Price listed above.)

the arts prep highschool rock off academy

For 5 years Tri-C has been the sponsor of the High School Rock Off at the International House of Blues. This year the Rock Off semifinals begins on January 14, 2012, and the deadline for entry is Thursday, December 8, 2011 at 5:00 PM. Email questions about the Rock Off to FrankImhoff@LiveNation.com.

This year ArtsPrep will be developing classes that will allow any high school rocker to learn the ins and outs of the music business. All participants will have the opportunity to learn how to record killer tracks in a world-class studio, tips on how to market their product, and instruction on how to develop their skills in creating music. Details will be available in January, so check for updates at www.tricpresents.com/arts-prep or 216-987-6145.

the orchestra program

A world-class opportunity for students interested in string instruments.

The Orchestra Program (T.O.P) (Ages 8 - 18)

(Metro Campus - Auditorium; MAM 110, 113, 114
January 21 - May 12, 2012

Price: $200

Saturdays, 12:30pm - 3:30pm

(No class March 17 & April 7, 2012)

* Made possible through the generous support of the Martha Holden Jennings Foundation.

Entering its second full year at Tri-C, T.O.P includes multi-faced classes presented in a dynamic, vibrant, intense, and fun way that will incorporate instruction in all the elements necessary to play in a full orchestra. The program consists of coordinated classes in Orchestra Rehearsal and Theory/Group Instrumental Lessons. After a first day evaluation, students will be placed in the level appropriate to their experience.

In the Orchestra Rehearsal, students will learn to be responsible for their individual parts, and will learn to work collaboratively with their fellow students and the conductor.

In the Theory/Group Instrumental Lessons students are introduced to the basic performance techniques for their instruments. These techniques include correct instrument and bow position, note reading, development of aural skills, rhythm and pitch.

Qualifying students in T.O.P will also be given a discount for private instrumental lessons, and every effort will be made to schedule those lessons at the most convenient times for each individual.

Price: $200

Saturdays, 1:00pm - 4:00pm
(No class on March 17 & April 17, 2012)

Tri-C's JazzPrep program gives students an opportunity to develop their skills and perform in both large and small ensembles, with focus on repertoire development, jazz theory and improvisation. The students engage in workshops and clinics often lead by national artists, throughout the year and during Tri-C JazzFest. Students from both JazzPrep and the Tri-C JazzFest High School All-Stars also perform each year during the JazzFest Education Days and at the Downbeat Invitational Concert as a part of the Tri-C JazzFest Cleveland.

An exciting and unique opportunity for advanced students in Jazz.

tri-c jazzfest high school all-stars

This unique program bridges the gap from the non-credit to the credit side of Tri-C's music program. Students from JazzPrep can be recommended by their instructors for the Tri-C JazzFest High School All-Stars band. They will initially be part of JazzPrep, and over time will be guided into the Jazz Studies program where they can apply to participate in the All-Stars for college credit through the PSEOP program. Through an articulation agreement with Berklee College of Music in Boston (the preeminent contemporary music institute in the nation), students who successfully complete the full course of study of the Jazz Studies program are guaranteed admission into Berklee at the junior level.

Contact Stephen Enos at stephen.enos@tric.edu to apply for this world class program.

The Tri-C JazzFest High School All-Stars is one of the top bands in Ohio, and boast alumni who have gone on to Juilliard, Berklee College of Music, and Oberlin Conservatory, among other schools with great jazz programs. Internationally renowned recording artists Sean Jones, Dominick Farinacci and Jerome Jennings are all alumni of the group. The All-Stars perform regularly in venues such as PlayhouseSquare, Tri-C JazzFest Cleveland, and Tower City.
